added: 8 Mar 2010 approx age: 61 from: Glasgow, United Kingdom

The greed of some nations for their own betterment at the expense of others who live in poverty has led to unprecedented violence throughout the globe. We have driven some animals to near extinction, we have poisoned our planet. Change is necessary for the planet and ourselves to survive. It is time we joined hands and said enough is enough.

I'm committed to speaking up for peace through peace art. It seems like such a gentle way to introduce peace into a thought... Or a heart. If a picture says a thousand words... I can think of nothing more important for those words to convey than peace. I create it to share. Help yourself. Help keep peace visible.

Kitty Rogers

added: 1 Jan 2010 approx age: 31 from: Houston, Texas, United States

The time is now. We can start by holding visions & thoughts of light & love to everyone & everything. We cannot wait any longer mankind needs us.

Maurice White BSc Melb

added: 25 Dec 2009 approx age: 77 from: Wantirna South, Victoria, Australia

There are only 4313 who have added themselves to this registry. We need to be more proactive in asking others to join this universal commitment to peace and all it means including support for all things that are peace related and help others.

Kree Raman

added: 2 Dec 2009 approx age: 44 from: Papakura, Auckland, New Zealand

I believe that to meet the challenges of our times, human beings will have to develop a greater sense of universal responsibility. Each of us must learn to work not just for oneself, one's own family or nation, but for the benefit of all humankind. Universal responsibility is the key to human survival. It is the best foundation for world peace. [[H. H. the Dalai Lama]]

Margaret Bynum

added: 15 Sep 2009 approx age: 63 from: Clemson, South Carolina, United States

Peace allows people the opportunity to reach their highest spiritual potential.

Nadia Thalji

added: 30 Aug 2009 approx age: 42 from: Bento Gonçalves, RS, Brazil

Here in Brazil I just started working with Culture of Peace through Art/Performance/Music/Dance/Stories and what I've seen so far is that the integration of creativity, self expression and Peace is totally connected in a very deep and beautiful level.

Etienne Maemble added: 2 Jun 2009 approx age: 29 from: Yaounde, Center, Cameroon

(i'm a french speaker) I believe that dialogue and understanding between peoples, respect for others, non-violence are values that we must educate the youth of the world, because these values are a prerequisite for peace on our beautiful planet and I beat every day to work tirelessly to fulfill and achieve these noble objectives.

Samantha Orthlieb

added: 23 Apr 2009 approx age: 44 from: Calgary, Alberta, Canada

I continue to have hope and faith that we will erase fear and live in peace and harmony. We are all connected and what affects one of us, affects all of us. We all want the same thing: to feel loved, to love and to feel safe.
